OLD COLONEL CAMERA.

"What's all this fuss about?" This frantic rushing up and down? "Oh, haven't you heard the news, my dear? Everybody is wild with fear. For old Colonel Camera has come to take the town."

Right and left the people were running; You could hear the fat one pant and strive; And a bride and groom were shouting madly, "We'll never, never be taken alive!"

There was nobody in that devoted city Whom Mrs. O'Flaherty had not scorned; For she was a cook with a deep conviction That her profession she well adorned; But when she saw how she was taken, She sat her down, and she wept and mourned.

The valiant few who resisted boldly, As a matter of course were taken first; And the non-committal, who looked on coldly As they deserved, were taken worst.

Not one escaped from the doughty Colonel He nobody spared, or great or small; Their fights and struggles were worse than useless.

For at last they were taken, one and all. So, if you should meet this conquering hero, Don't try to hide, or to run, or fight, But assume your very best expression, And put yourself in a pleasing light.

—St. Nicholas.

A CLOSE SHAVE.

A Brakeman Came Very Near Being Killed Saturday.

Dick Mierle, a brakeman on local freights Nos. 64 and 65, C. and O. Railroad, was very badly hurt Saturday about noon at Ball's, a siding used by the quarrymen below California, while en route to Cincinnati.

The crew was engaged in what is known as "kicking" a flatcar on the sidetrack, and Mierle was on the car to set the brake when it had gone far enough.

A small rock was on the rail, and the car, running onto it, was thrown from the track.

In the jolt Mierle lost his hold and fell against the hill, rolling back under the side of the car, and one of the journal boxes caught him and rolled him over, breaking his arm in two places and considerably bruising him up all over the body.

He was taken to California, where medical attention was given, after which he was brought to this city and removed to his residence on East Fifth street.

We believe this was the closest shave we ever heard of a man not being killed. While the car was passing Mierle it cut the bosom out of his shirt and his necktie off, not even as much scratching his person in that particular place.

He is resting easy this morning, and unless hurt inwardly will be out in a few days.

He was one of the best natured fellows you'd meet in a long walk, and his many friends will be sorry to hear of the accident.

John and Alexander Tyler, brothers, and prominent planters near Northport, Ala., fought a duel. One is dead and the other cannot live.

CONFERENCE NOTES.
Members From Maysville District Whose Characters Passed.

At the session of the Conference of the M. E. Church, South, at Frankfort, the following Ministers from this District were examined:

George W. Boswell, Moorefield; Seneca Xenophon Hall Pollett, Sylvan Dell; Leonidas Robinson, Maysville and Helena; J. R. Word, Kinney Mission; E. E. Holmes, Owensville—characters passed and continued.

J. R. Peoples, Mt. Carmel; T. B. Cook, Germantown; W. O. Rowland, Flemingsburg; T. F. Talliaferro, Carlisle; J. W. Hawes, Ruddle's Mills; B. H. Wightman, Shannon—passed.

One young Minister said that he received for his year's work $73 40.

"Are you a married man?" asked the Bishop.

"No, sir, I am not."

"Then thank the Lord for that," said the Bishop.

One other young Minister announced that he had received $30 for his year's work, and still another said that he had received $6 25 and twenty-eight pairs of yarn socks.

Bishop Duncan made a palpable hit in his opening address when he said that his friends of other communions while disclaiming a belief in the doctrine of falling from grace, yet often show a wonderful facility in practicing it.

At Saturday's morning session of the Conference, when reports of Preachers were being passed upon, when the name of Rev. W. T. Poynter, D.D., President of Science Hill College, was reached charges of heresy were filed by Rev. A. P. Jones of Mercer county, and it is thought to be mainly based on certain articles he had written. A committee was appointed by the Bishop to investigate the charges. The general opinion is that there is nothing in the charges, and that they are brought by the Holiness followers.

Louis and Karl Rinninsland of Cincinnati send 600 stamps for Miss Dollie Rose.

The Republicans of Boyd nominated a full county ticket at Ashland Saturday. For County Judge, Captain A. C. Haley; Attorney, Thomas W. Mitchell; Clerk, John Voss; Sheriff, William Kline; Jailor, I. S. Hurd; Assessor, Will Ross; Surveyor, Charles Boggess; Coroner, Dr. S. C. York.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Wilkinson left for their home at Huntington, W. Va., on the accommodation at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon; and he will make it torrid for the parties who caused his arrest here for felony. The officer who brought the warrant here returned to Huntington on the morning train, saying he didn't propose to take Mr. Wilkinson with him.

Land For Sale.

MAYSVILLE VICTORIOUS!

THE ASHLANDS WENT DOWN IN DEFEAT SATURDAY.

It Was a Great Game, and the Gentlemen Ashlanders Didn't Make a Single Kick.

On account of the way the game Friday between Maysville and Ashland terminated there was only a small crowd on hand Saturday afternoon to see our boys win a well earned victory in a ten inning contest.

There was any amount of ill feeling existing between the two teams, but before the game started Captains Frank and O'Neill kissed and made up and all was forgiven, and both teams went to work with a will.

There wasn't a dull moment throughout the contest. The game was strictly on its merits, and Maysville was victorious.

Reiman twirled four innings of the game for Maysville and did well, the visitors only hitting him safely three times. On account of a swollen hand he gave way to Wellner, who also did well.

Kouns pitched a fine game for Ashland. The visitors started business in the third and scored three runs on Taylor and Frank's errors and singles by Rhodes and Bulmer.

The locals had a chance to tie the score in the fourth, but one run was all they scored. Rogers hit a corking grounder into right; Sparks missed it and went to second. Taylor worked a base on balls. Wellner hit over third for a base and Rogers scored.

Reiman's two-bagger, a sacrifice and a long fly gave Maysville another score in the sixth.

The visitors found Wellner, who had succeeded Reiman, who was disabled by being hit by a pitched ball, pretty freely, and scored two runs on two big errors, singles by Sparks and Claggett and Wellner's two-bagger.

The locals tied the score in the seventh. Frank got life at first on Rhodes's wild throw, and pilfered second and third. Kehoe struck out. Reiman pushed his second two-bagger into left and Frank trotted home. Rogers reached first on four bad balls. Taylor bunted and Rhodes missed it, Reiman scoring. Rogers scored on Wellner's sacrifice. This settled the run getting until the tenth, when our boys made four clean hits, which earned three runs and won the game. Taylor started the fusillade of hits by driving one past short for a single. Wellner hit safely to left. Taylor and Wellner scored on Wadsworth's two bagger to center. Wadsworth scored on Hill's slashing drive into center. Hill was thrown out trying to steal second. Cox and Frank struck out.

The visitors went out in order in their half.

The following is the score:

A trainload of Department clerks left Washington yesterday for Louisville, where they are to vote for the renomination of Congressman Caruth in the Democratic primaries tomorrow.

DEMOCRATIC POW-WOW.
Nominations For Magistrate and Constable Made Saturday.

The Democrats of the First Magisterial District, comprising the First, Second and Third Wards, met at the Courthouse Saturday afternoon to decide upon candidates for Magistrate and Constable at the approaching election.

James N. Kehoe was made Chairman and Michael J. McCarthy Secretary.

The candidates for Magistrate were George S. Hancock and John T. Bramel, and for Constable James Redmond, Sr., and Colonel William Rosser.

It was agreed that each candidate name a teller for each door, and that the audience pass out and the tellers record their choice as they passed.

John L. Chamberlain and C. D. Russell were named as tellers for Mr. Hancock, Stanley Watson and William Cole for Mr. Bramel, Charles B. Poyntz and Ed. Glenn for Mr. Redmond, and Harry B. Owens and Walter Blatterman for Mr. Rosser.

The report of the tellers was as follows:

Hancock—20.
Bramel—75.
Redmond—55.
Rosser—39.
And Messrs. Bramel and Redmond were declared the nominees.

Judge Wall offered a resolution pledging those present in convention to do all in their power to elect the ticket, which was adopted and the meeting adjourned.

Will Walker and Mrs. Osa E. Gill, both of Lewisburg, was married at the Clerk's office Saturday.

George Porter was shot and another man was badly cut at a colored festival on Lawrence Creek Saturday night.

BILLIE B. BEATEN.

AT LEAST THAT'S ABOUT THE WAY IT LOOKS NOW.

Owens Appears to Have Downed Mr. Breckinridge—Mr. Settle Wain't In It At All.

There were high times in the Lexington District Saturday.

Fortunately there were no serious disturbances.

The Opera-house had been thrown open by Manager Kinneman, and we don't think he got enough to pay the gasbill, not more than twenty persons being present.

The returns were slow in reaching here, but by 10 o'clock enough had been received to serve as a wet blanket to the friends of Mr. Breckinridge.

In places where the "Silver Tongued" had counted on a big majority, Mr. Owens simply walked over him with baseball shoes.

Settle wasn't in it at any stage of the game.

The latest Owens figures at hand claim—Owens 7,421, Breckinridge 7,363, Settle 3,390, giving Owens a plurality of 388.

The Breckinridge managers claim 113 majority for their man.

However, the actual result on the nominee cannot positively be stated until the official vote is received.

KILLED AT MAYSICK.

Marshal John Mitchell Shoots Bill Clark, a Colored Tough.

Bill Clark was naturally a tough citizen.

When his hide was full of mean whisky he was notoriously tough.

Several times the officers of this city have had trouble with him, while his "scraps" at Mayslick outnumber the hairs on the average patron of the bald-headed row at a leg opera.

He had been shot once or twice before, but was so like a rhinoceros that the balls had little effect.

Saturday night he was in full feather for fighting, loaded to the guards with "gin."

He appeared to have it in for Marshal John Mitchell, and cursed that officer up and down the entire gamut of profanity.

Mr. Mitchell kept his temper cool and his eye open and thus avoided trouble. Sunday afternoon Clark appeared to be pretty sober, when the officer reminded him of the previous night's occurrences.

Clark responded with the declaration that he was just as sober the night before as he was then, using harsh language toward the officer, emphasizing his words by reaching for his hip pocket.

Mr. Mitchell stopped further proceedings on Clark's part by shooting him dead.

The Marshal gave himself up and the case will be heard before Judge Plister today.
